

EMPOWERING YOUTH

The Resilient Caribbean Joint Programme, is empowering youth to enter the labour market through access to entrepreneurship training and skills development. To date, over 2,600 youth have benefitted from these opportunities offered through our partners UNICEF and UNESCO.

Life Skills

2,343

Youth completed training

Youth in the OECS choose from 15 courses offered through UNICEF’s FunDoo platform. FunDoo is a digital life coach, equipping young people with 21st century employability and life skills better preparing them to transition from learning to earning.

TOP 4 COURSES

Hello Business World
 1142 youth completed

Make Your Own Budget
 766 youth completed

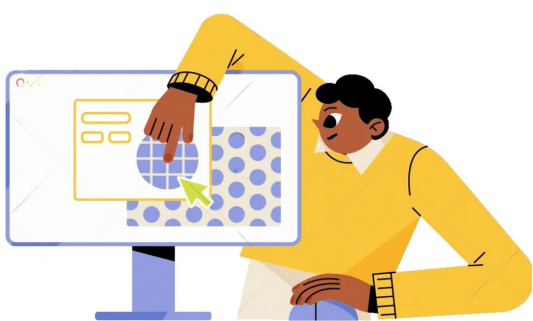

What to Talk When
 581 youth completed

Let’s Talk Self-Care
 532 youth completed

Entrepreneurship Training

UNESCO has launched the Grenada Youth Empowered for the Digital World of Work initiative. This initiative focuses on equipping Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) educators, community youth leaders, and post-secondary youths with emerging digital and entrepreneurial skills required to increase national and regional productivity. Training is ongoing.

Aleph Digital Ad Training
 203 youth certified

Entrepreneurial Train the Trainer Workshop for community youth leaders
 46 youth certified

Youth Entrepreneurial Workshop
 105 youth participated